

Dear Individual Donors, Exhibitors and Sponsors:

“Winning... the ultimate feelings of exhilaration making man or woman come alive in fulfillment of personal triumph!” Gil Lafferty, Member of Super Bowl XVII World Champions Oakland Raiders.

We would like to invite you to the 28th National Veterans Wheelchair Games – Omaha, Nebraska, July 25-29, 2008! More than 3,000 athletes, coaches, family members, caregivers, and volunteers from across the United States, Puerto Rico, and Great Britain will be at the Games this year in Omaha08!

The Games help bring together our young and most recent spinal cord injured generation of wheelchair veterans in friendly para-Olympic-style competition venues on athletic fields of play going for Gold, Silver, & Bronze PVA medals! These Games are an annual highlight in the rehabilitation process.

In conjunction with the five day Game events, there is also a one-day Disabled Sports, Recreation & Fitness Expo. The Expo is made up of more than 100 exhibitors and continues to gain recognition, featuring the latest products and services for health, sports, and recreational needs of the disabled community. This is great opportunity for Exhibitors and sponsorship partners to directly market and display their health, fitness and other consumer products to event participants and visitors.

We have many levels of sponsorships open for your support. Should you be unable to attend as a medal sponsor this year, we also have available individual athlete sponsorships to help our disadvantaged wheelchair athletes attend the Games this year for a small donation of $1500. All donations are tax deductible.

The Games are a multi-media, week-long series of competitive events. Each wheelchair veteran who competes in one of the events and wins Gold, Silver, or Bronze medals may be featured in local, state, and national media channels. This reaches their home states throughout the country where they are featured in daily news venues. Sponsoring corporations are often highlighted along with winning athletes they support.

Please call or send an email if you need additional information. We will be happy to visit to discuss your corporate or individual support for our veterans and their Games. Our USA athlete wheelchair veteran men and women thank you for your support!
