

A differently-abled, paraplegic, Female, US Marine, Veteran, Hero, rows across the Atlantic Ocean. Please join me on February 20th at LAX to welcome her home.

02/20/08—American Airlines Flight 297 Leaving MCO (Orlando) 1:35PM, Arriving LAX (Los Angeles) 4:10PM. Locator record #LKBXJF
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Long Beach Woman Rowing Her Way Into History Books!

Angela Madsen <http://www.rowoflife.net>, a paraplegic from Long Beach, CA, rowing across the Atlantic Ocean, with Franck Festor, an Amputee from France. She doesn't speak French and he doesn't speak English. They left La Gomera in the Canary Islands on 12/02/07 and are due to arrive in Antigua at the end of Jan. 2008. Both are involved in Human Rights and they are flying the UN flag on their boat. Angela is also on the US Adaptive Rowing Team and has 5 World Championship gold metals. She will be rowing in the paralympics in Beijing, China in 2008. She is also the founder and director of the California Adaptive Rowing Program in Long Beach, CA. www.carplb.net

Californian Seeks To Be First Disabled -- Make That Differently-Abled -- Woman To Row Across Atlantic Ocean

"Franck and I understand what it's like to get up and move on with life after devastating injuries. Our primary goal with this project is to inspire others to do the same, regardless of any different abilities they may have," Madsen said.

CONTACT : Angela's Blog: <http://debmole.blogspot.com/>

760.412.9943

PIPromotionsCA@gmail.com